The standard programme

Search with Pascale and Lala and help dig out truffles under the guide's instructions. Discover black truffle, its growing environment, storage and culinary uses, then share a tasting with truffle and wine pairings. The standard workshop lasts three hours, including 75 minutes outdoors. Finds depend on maturity and ground conditions: no harvest is guaranteed.

Season and spoken language

Truffle hunting begins in mid or late November, depending on maturity and ground conditions, and may continue until late March. The exact date and programme are confirmed before your visit. Workshops are conducted in French only, including private bookings. This translated document does not promise a workshop in another spoken language.

Visit conditions

By appointment in Suze-la-Rousse; the exact meeting point is shared individually after confirmation and never published. In heavy rain, we agree another date at no extra charge. Allow about one hour of walking; coach access must be confirmed. Transport, accommodation and a full meal are excluded unless a separate written offer says otherwise. Wine is for adults, with an alcohol-free alternative.

Truffles found are not included in the workshop. Truffle and wine purchases remain optional and separate from the workshop price.

A group or a private programme

The standard format can accommodate up to 40 people. Private bookings can reach 100 people, including children. For 80 to 100 participants, two groups alternate truffle hunting and wine/truffle tasting: one starts hunting while the other tastes, then they swap. Programme, duration, group size, guides, rotations and total including tax are confirmed in the quotation. Any group discount must be agreed; it is not automatic.

Prepare the quotation

Send your preferred date or period, number of adults and children, children's ages, access needs, any coach arrival and schedule constraints. A French CSE may arrange a single invoice and its own contribution under its funding rules. We usually reply the same day or within one day. Enquiry, priced proposal, then confirmed appointment after acceptance: an enquiry alone reserves no places.

Two separate proposals

A truffle gift box

50 g: €90 including tax and packaging; delivery extra. Lot, availability, collection or shipping within metropolitan France are agreed before payment.

A walk through the vines

€20 including tax / person / hour at Domaine Les Hermessaines. Vines, wine and terroir: a separate activity from truffle hunting, with programme and total agreed by quotation.
